ABOUT YOUNG AUDIENCES

Founded in 1958 as an affiliate of the country's largest arts-in-education organization, Young Audiences of Oregon & SW Washington has grown into the region's primary provider of in-school arts programs. Guided by our mission—to inspire young people and expand their learning through the arts—we connect artists with schools to bring impactful arts-learning experiences to more than 70,000 young people in our community each year. Our work improves academic achievement and builds skills needed for modern life.

In the last school year, Young Audiences provided...
