

Student Team Leader Goals

Student Name: _____

As a Run for the Arts Student Team Leader you have a special opportunity to boost enthusiasm and participation for your school's Run for the Arts. As a team leader, you are eligible to earn a Run for the Arts water bottle by checking off 5 of the boxes below. Do you have an idea that is not on this paper? Check in with your Run for the Arts Coordinator to see if it counts.

Goals

- ☐ Make your own fundraising page at runforthearts.ya-or.org
- ☐ Visit 3 classrooms to remind students to participate in the Run for the Arts.
- ☐ Volunteer at least 2 hours for your Run for the Arts coordinator.
- ☐ Brainstorm with other Student Team Leaders ways that you can make your school's Run for the Arts event successful.
- ☐ Wear your Run for the Arts Student Team Leader t-shirt at least 5 times before your Run day.
- ☐ Make a Run for the Arts announcement at a school assembly.
- ☐ Make a Run for the Arts sign or banner to hang in your school.
- ☐ Write and perform a Run for the Arts cheer for your school.
- ☐ Meet with your principal to talk about what you are doing as a Student Team Leader.
- ☐ Create your own Run for the Arts training exercises and practice them every week.
- ☐ Help lay out the ¼ mile track (Do you know how many feet are in ¼ mile?)
- ☐ Earn 50 or more points during your Run for the Arts.
- ☐ What other ways can you help make Run for the Arts better at your school?

Letter to Parents

Dear Parents and Guardians,

Young Audiences is a nonprofit arts organization that works to inspire young people and expand their learning through the arts. Since 1977, Young Audiences has helped schools and students raise funds for in-school arts programs with Run for the Arts. The money raised will be used for performances, workshops and residencies with professional teaching artists; field trips; and art supplies.

Your child's participation in the Run is voluntary, but I hope you will encourage them to join in, have fun, and support our school. I also invite you to help out by volunteering before, during, or after the run with our Run for the Arts school coordinator.

Our school coordinator: _____

Please help your child in the following ways:

- Read the Run for the Arts Sponsor Sheet that your child brings home.
- Sign the "Parent/Guardian Agreement" and fill in a t-shirt size for your child. T-shirts are a potential prize your child can earn.
- Register your child to collect online donations on runforthearts.ya-or.org. Students can collect donations online, in person, or both.
- Please assist your child in collecting sponsorships from family, friends and neighbors by sharing the online link or by collecting in person donations.
- Help your child follow the timeline listed below so deadlines are not missed.

Re: Run for the Arts

Before the Run

1. CAREFULLY READ the instructions on your Sponsor Sheet. Have all sections filled out before the Run. Don't forget your parent or guardian's signature!
2. Register for online donations at runforthearts.ya-or.org
3. Bring your Sponsor Sheet to school on _____ so we can record your laps during the Run. (date)

Run Date: _____

After the Run

Encourage sponsors to make payments online or by check. Checks should be made payable to Young Audiences or Run for the Arts. The pledged money is tax-deductible; if sponsors ask, you can give them Young Audiences' Federal Tax ID: 93-0521848.

1. Be sure to thank your sponsors for their support of your school's Run for the Arts.
2. All physical funds and Sponsor Sheets MUST be turned in to the school by _____ in order for you to be eligible for awards. (date)

Have a great run!

Re: Run for the Arts

We're off and running for the arts! You and your enthusiasm are essential for our school's success in this project. Thank you in advance for your time and energy.

Students can collect donations online! Students need to register at runforthearts.ya-or.org and share their link with friends and family. Any way that you can encourage them to do this is helpful.

Although the true reward of the Run for the Arts is the arts experiences our students receive, t-shirts and prizes are great motivators. Please remind your students about the prizes your school has chosen to offer and the qualifications for winning them. If you are unsure what these are, please talk to your school's Run for the Arts coordinator.

Dear Local Business

I am writing you about an upcoming event at Name of School in your neighborhood. Our school will be participating in the Young Audiences' Run for the Arts fundraiser this year on Date of Run. Run for the Arts helps our school raise money to support arts programs throughout the year.

We are hoping to include more community members and local businesses in our efforts and invite your business to take part. We are asking you to contribute $200 – $500 or an amount that is comfortable for your organization.

All sponsoring businesses contributing more than $100 will receive a special community supporter thank you in our parent newsletter that goes out to [Number of Students] local families.

If your organization would like to participate in this year's event as a sponsor, please contact me with the amount of your donation. All donations should be made out to "Run for the Arts" and are tax exempt.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
